

May 10

- Allocations/Budget
  - Received substantially less than MESSA did last year; only received $1400
    - This is because we have so much left over from last year
    - We will have next year approx. $5900 (including the $1400)
    - Up to us on how we spend the money – we do have a broad budget already planned
- Major Events prior to graduation Class of 2012
  - No real events dealing with women's issues in the Middle East
  - Anya: International Women's Day is March 8, 2012 or quarter lecture series
    - Good opportunity for panel/day long event for different approaches/problems for women in the Middle East
    - Middle East will be broadly defined
    - Could have this co-sponsored by several different departments/programs, if we plan far enough in advance
    - Also open to people writing their theses/dissertations
    - Possible budget: