

November 29, 2011

Poetry Event

- Masters students will be encouraged (extra credit for language courses) to present a poem in their foreign language, option of accompanying student presenting English translation
- To be held Friday, February 10th (6th week), likely in Pick Ground Floor Lounge
- A Valentines' Day Tie-In: All Kinds of Love Poetry Will Be Encouraged
- Finger food and wine will be arranged
- Andrew will write language instructors about making event participation count for extra credit

Finances

- Kristen: we can use funds for t-shirts and journals, not reimbursable, must get check ahead of time
- Bake sale to be held first or second week ; we expect to earn around $100

Journal

- Journal Update: $380 total for 80-page journal for 50 copies; we're getting 50 copies for 100 page-journal, may run between 400 and 410 dollars, a recurring fee, every quarter, Auggie will front, Humanities reimburses half immediately, half from elsewhere
- 1st edition before Dec. 12

Website

- Gwen has been updating it. If you have pictures from events, please send to Gwen for website.
- Please take pictures at CMES and Middle East-related events you attend for the website.
- Farhad's guide will go up on website soon

Shirts

- MESA - Tracy would like to sell shirts, sweatshirts
- Sweatshirts will be $20, pre-ordered by form, a $3 profit for MESSA; Grey with maroon lettering